Elder Art Initiative - a program of the William Kent Art Foundation

Art in Public Spaces - Connecticut Office of the Arts

Elder Art Initiative Grant Program

The William Kent Art Foundation is dedicated to celebrating and supporting Connecticut artists aged 60 and above. The Foundation is currently offering a grant program with an initial four (4) grants in the amount of $5,000 each. These grants provide crucial financial assistance to professional artists 60 and older who specialize in innovative print making, painting, or sculpture.

Submission Deadline: December 1, 2026. Submissions will be reviewed in January with notification scheduled for mid-February, 2027.
