3. New Business

- a. PZC Application 20-24 – 21 Higbie Rd./124 Watertown Rd.
– Approval re: Executive Order 7MM – southFARMS – Outdoor Concerts and Comedy Shows.

David Wiig read many emails into the record from Town Residents about the activities at South Farms.

Ben Paletsky also spoke and described the event procedures including the processes about temperature checks and how the event employs 70 people. He also said they are trying to work with Production Company to lessen the noise impacts to the neighbors and community. Ben also wishes that the board as well as residents of the town working for him. Ben also asked that David Wiig send him a list of the complaints and concerns about the activities at the farm in numbered order and David Wiig said he will do that.

Ben lost connection so the board continued to discuss the matters with each other.

Robert McIntosh: Bob stressed how the board should focus on how to provide relief to the residents of the town because the ZEO used Covid 19 Executive Emergency powers to approve this application. He also mention how the applicant has certain rights after approval and that after the Covid 19 emergency ends the application is rescinded.

William Ayles Jr. agreed with Robert McIntosh that the comedy show activity has too much language.

Joel Skilton commented on the situation.

Eileen Narbutas numerous times read the messages that were written in the chat.
