ASSESSOR'S OFFICE

67 Ripley Hill Road, Barkhamsted, CT 06063

February 2, 2026

Dear Homeowner,

Applications for the elderly or totally disabled homeowner tax credit program are now available.

Income limits for this filing period are based on your 2025 income. These limits are:

Single Homeowners: $ 46,300

Married Homeowners: $ 56,500

The following forms are enclosed: (1) Local Elderly and Totally Disabled Homeowner, (2) Form M-35H State Elderly and Totally Disabled Homeowner, and (3) Barkhamsted Tax Relief 2026 – summary. If you are a veteran, please request an application for the Additional Veteran's Exemption if we did not include it.

Applications with all required proof of income must be brought to the assessor's office in person, no later than May 14, 2026. Please contact our office to schedule an appointment as soon as possible. We will be happy to assist you. If you have difficulty coming to the office, home visits may be scheduled.

Required proof of income includes your SSA 1099 form (Social Security Benefit Statement) and if you file an income tax return, you must include a copy of your 2025 income tax return. If you will not be filing an income tax return this year, we will need to take copies of all year-end statements from banks, pensions, dividends and any other forms of income. Please note, all records are destroyed after receiving permission from the Secretary of State.

If you can't find or did not receive a SSA-1099 form, please contact the Social Security Administration for a duplicate form. We cannot process applications without it.

For more info or additional copies of the application forms, please visit the Town's website at www.Barkhamsted.us and click on Assessor's Department to locate Tax Relief Information.

Sincerely,
Carmen Smith CCMA I, Assessor
