

SELECTMAN'S OFFICE

Durham, Connecticut

April 17, 1968

The Selectmen met at their adjourned meeting on April 17, 1968 at 8:00 P.M. Mr. Coston Towns was appointed United Nations Day Chairman and Mr. Frank Davis was appointed Dog Warden until we can find someone to replace him. Many names were discussed and the First Selectman is to contact them to try and get a replacement for Mr. Davis.

Mr. Walter Gregg and Mr. Wm. Cahill Jr. attended the meeting and discussed their plans for the coming season.

representing the Beautification Committee

Then the Town Meeting scheduled for April 22nd. was discussed and the permit fees were talked about. Mr. Stender is going to ask Attorney Lynch about fees for Public Buildings. Also they would like the Building Official to be paid 100% of the fees instead of 75%.

They adjourned until Thursday April 25, at 6:00 P.M. at which time they will make voters also.
