Budget approval continued:

4030 Ambulance
what is the $15,000 for this year? Board of Selectmen would like a better understanding of the need and the proposed solution. How were prices arrived at?
Sent out for bid? Do we need to put money into Contingency if OSHA requires physicals?

6501 Ambulance Reserve
Board approved.

Board of Selectmen authorized approval of a memo from J. Muraca, Bookkeeper, (she had requested Board of Selectmen approval to authorize CBT, Durham Branch, to transfer to Middconn Municipal Federal Credit Union weekly the sum of deductions made from employees wages for their participation in the credit union; this sum would be transferred from the Town of Durham, General Fund account) upon the recommendation of the Town Treasurer.

Board of Selectmen agreed to recommend to Alfred E. Brechlin, E911 Coordinator, that street numbering on Main Street remain in its present form.

Board of Selectmen considered the Tax Collector's request for designated parking for town officials; but decided that due to limited parking and a desire to continue convenient accessibility for the public, it would remain as is.

Motion M. Boord, second H. Curley, to adjourn at 9:55 P.M.; 3 ayes.
