BOARD OF SELECTMEN'S MEETING
August 8, 1991

Maryann P. Boord, First Selectman, called the meeting to order at 7:35 p.m. Present: M. Boord, F. Korn, G. Lavine, Jane Mauro, and Ellen Mauro.

Jane Mauro, Trinity Corps President, made the following request, as submitted by letter dated August 2, 1991:

"On behalf of the Board of Directors of The Durham Trinity Corporation, I am requesting that you consider waiving the building permit fees for our project.

In recent conversations with David Steere of FmHA, he suggested that with similar projects in which they have been involved, the towns have shown their support in this manner.

He implied that such a waiver would help to facilitate FmHA's approval of our pending loan, since it would show the interest and cooperation of the Town of Durham."

The Board of Selectmen discussed Trinity Corps' request. G. Lavine asked if the waiver could be considered an "in kind" contribution on behalf of the town. M. Boord will find out the answer.

MOTION BY M. BOORD THAT THE BOARD OF SELECTMEN TAKE ALL NECESSARY STEPS TO WAIVE THE BUILDING PERMIT FEE FOR THE ELDERLY HOUSING PROJECT; MOTION SECONDED BY G. LAVINE; 3 AYES.

The meeting adjourned at 7:45 p.m.
