Charter Revision Update:

Chairman Wilde has not attended again, and from the minutes noted the interview with Chairman Wilde has not been on the agenda yet for Charter Revision, although has met with representative from that committee already. No specific commentary around Compensation Review and Personal Policy Commission (as of yet) listed under any Charter Revision posted communications.

Old Business:

Communication with First Selectman regarding town treasurer noting that the Finance Director and First Selectman agreed on the salary to commensurate with the town treasurers experience level along with an adequate job description.

Discussion on shared drive and all CRPPC members have received re access to the shared drive with one member still without access despite new link being sent. Discussion on shared drive not yet reflecting all current employees or status of union vs/ non union.

Chair Wilde submitted the CRPPC annual report with all commission members thanking her for her service in compiling our complete works from the past year. Discussion on cc/ Charter Revision, and Chair Wilde agreed to cc/ the Charter Revision Commission via email.

New Business:
