Discussion: Caturano Violation

Alfonso Caturano and Mr. Sipperly were present to provide an update on the ongoing activity at the site. Mr. Sipperly stated that he was contacted by Mr. Caturano to determine the amount of fill placed within the wetland area. Using a gas-powered auger, Mr. Sipperly excavated several test holes. A map prepared by Chris Juliano was reviewed, and Mr. Sipperly discussed the results of the test holes. Based on these findings, an area was flagged that requires removal of fill from the wetland. Proposed remediation measures were discussed.

F. DeFelice stated that a survey is required showing the location of the test points, existing stockpiles, current site conditions, and original grades, all to scale. Additional discussion followed regarding the depth of fill, modeling below the original grade, and the test hole findings.

A. Caturano shall have C. Juliano prepare and submit a scaled, accurate survey plan showing test hole locations and depths, modeling, original and existing ground surfaces, stockpiles, and a profile/elevation drawing of the wetland violation area. This information shall be submitted for review at the next meeting.

The wetland areas under discussion were identified on the map and described as extremely remote and not vernal pools.

A wetlands report prepared by Eric Davison of Davison Environmental was submitted and reviewed. The report indicates that the two isolated wetland areas total approximately 1,100 square feet. Mr. Benjamin noted that remediation is not feasible due to the presence of ledge and rock throughout the area. The proposed project and associated fees were discussed.
