4. FIRST SELECTMAN'S REPORT: Kids are back to school. October 3rd is the Fall Festival, which will have different departments of the town and nonprofit organizations that can be used as resources. You can contact Shilo Garceau at emd@goshenct.gov.

5. CORRESPONDENCE: None.

6. OLD BUSINESS: None.

7. NEW BUSINESS:

- A. Recreation Department: Sarah Leonard (22 School Hill) and Recreation Director Erin Reilly spoke on the new Playground going in at Camp Coch. Erin Reilly put together a playground committee of Sarah Leonard, Sue Breakell and Kim Andrusia that worked a little over a year to select a company, put together equipment and negotiate a price. The cost was $61,261.94 (this was a large discounted price) that included installation and mulch. The committee thanked Public Works for helping to prep the area and they are hoping to have it completely installed by November. More details and location were discussed and Sarah will send a schematic for the minutes. Mr. Olson thanked them and said good job as well as the other Selectman.

8. NEW APPOINTMENTS/ RESIGNATIONS: None.

9. PUBLIC COMMENT: Janet Hooper, 217 Sharon Turnpike: Sounds like a great playground. Asked the status of the Code of Ethics. Mr. Breakell gave an update that the employee handbook was finalized this afternoon and the Code of Ethics will be following soon.

10. ADJOURNMENT: MOTION by Scott Olson and seconded by Dexter Kinsella to adjourn the meeting at 5:14PM. Motion carries.

Received September 2, 2026 3:32 PM

Respectfully Submitted, Lori Clinton, First Selectman Aide
