Special Meeting
LAC
March 13, 2022

LAC members in attendance: Priscilla Jeffery, Jessica Russell, Charlie Dumais, Thomasina Levy, Michele Murelli.

The meeting took place at the Bantam Cinema and Arts Center. It consisted of a showing of the documentary, Breuer's Bohemia, a film about the concentration of contemporary architecture in Litchfield and the luminaries who made up the group of people involved with Marcel Breuer.

It was a benefit for the Cinema and the LAC, and it was sold out. 75 attendees. Each attendee received the hard cover, coffee table book, Breuer's Bohemia, as a gift from the publisher. After expenses, the Cinema and the LAC will share the proceeds 50/50.

A short video, created by Charlie Dumais, was shown on the big screen to introduce the mission and members of the LAC.

Priscilla Jeffery, the Chair of LAC, gave a short statement describing the new council.

At the end of the film, Jessica Russell conducted a question and answer session with Kyra Hartnett, who resides in Garagin II, a Breuer house, and James Crump, the filmmaker.

The event ended at approximately 9:45 pm.
