

Minutes,
November 8, 2022

Attendance: Priscilla Jeffery, Michele Murelli, Courtney Murray, Caylin Jensen,
Thomasina Levy (by phone)
Ashley Picker Dubin, absent/stuck in Hartford traffic.

Meeting called to order: 6:08

Moved: Courtney

Seconded: Priscilla

Priscilla moved to accept minutes of last meeting.
Thomasina seconded.

Rise Up MLK Mural: Matt Conway, Director. LAC intends to invite Matt to attend the next meeting to tell us about how his mural project works.

Social Media: Develop a media strategy.

Posts, reels, stories...

The main portion of the next meeting is 11/22, and it will be devoted to a special media strategy.

Financial Report: No change from last meeting.

Grant Committee: 2 grants have been submitted.

CT Humanities Grant and the Creative Partnership Grant.

The grants cover: The Rise Up/MLK mural project with high school students, Website, public mural @ the Village, and the CT Ballet summer performance and workshops.

We will divide up soliciting sponsors.

Time to start working on the Scherr-Thoss proposals, deadline 2/1/22.
Priscilla will call Denise tomorrow for clarification on the Scherr-Thoss grant.

New Business: An Artist Mixer

Networking for artists, Hey Artists! Come meet your fellow artists and find community with each other....

Who should we invite and should we include artists from outside of town. Litchfield County. Priority is Litchfield Artists.

Invite artisans like Twenty2 Wallpaper, Bantam Tile, and Guy Wolfe...

Priscilla will speak to the Art House as the venue.

December presentation regarding public art/Danielle Mailer mural at the Village to the Borough/Historical Commission.

The Prevention Council is sponsoring a series of art contests for the high school kids on how to make healthy choices for a balanced life. The first group of participants are the Middle School Illustration Students and the High School Graphic Design Students. Michele is the Graphic Arts teacher until mid-January. We will include this content on our social media site.

Adjourned @: 6:56

Moved: Caylin, 2nd: Courtney

Submitted by Michele Murelli, Secretary