Don Lowe briefly discussed Hawley and the Committee collectively agreed that it was too early in the process to discuss or make a decision.

All 13 proposals were accepted for review by the Board of Selectmen for complete qualifications.

Jim Best inquired why the bid dollar amounts were not included. Andrea Maloney explained that she wasn't clear whether those could be made public. The bids were distributed to the Committee that evening during discussions.

Don Lowe made a motion to enter Executive Session for the purpose of discussing proposals for architectural services for the Sherman Senior Center project per CT General Statute 1-210 24.
