Item 11. Selectmen's Comments and Reports

Sel. Perez reviewed data she compiled with the cost associated with revising an ordinance. There will be two questions on the November Ballot regarding Charter Change to reduce expenses from entire text publican in a local newspaper.

Sel. Bouchard noted clearing being done along the river, street lights out on main street and the success of the Fall Foliage Festivities.

Sel. Perez, suggested a day time meeting between Bouchard, the Town Manger and Eversource pertaining to the fifteen street lights that are out along Main Street.

Sel. Bourque, noted he was contacted by a resident regarding fast traffic on Colony Drive.

Sel. Sedlack, he had also been contacted by the same resident and suggests a meeting with Sel. Arcelaschi, Liaison to the Police, the Town Manager and the Chief of Police for a response to the resident.

Sel. Bourque also commented on vandalism at the Monument on Crown Street, the Cemetery Walk on October 20th. and a Veterans Ceremony at the Monument on November 11th.

Sel. Arcelaschi called for volunteers to be Bell Ringers for the Salvation during the holiday season.
