

Laurie Bessette

From: Loretta Tremblay <sweets280743@gmail.com>
Sent: Sunday, November 23, 2014 8:55 PM
To: Town Clerk; Laurie Bessette; John Wiarda; Mike Renzullo; Tim Wheeler
Subject: Winchester Energy Commission meeting mins. 11/18/2014

Town Of Winchester Energy Commission

Regular Meeting- Minutes

Probate Room

7:00pm

11/18/2014

Call to Order- 7:05pm

Loretta Tremblay- Chairperson, secretary

John Wiardia- Vice Chairperson

Mike Renzullo

Tim Wheeler

Brian Sewell- Next Step Living Representative

Item 1- None

Item 2- Public comment- Laurel City Revamp intends to take full advantage of the C-Pace program to help secure financing needed for the Willow street repairs.

Item 3- Agenda review

Item 4- J. Wiardia motion to approve minutes from October 2014 meeting. T. Wheeler second, motion, Three for the motion, one abstained, motion carries.

Item 5- Old Business-

Draft policy- Tabled

FB- Steady, 1 new like

Constellation- Was not able to connect with them, will try again this coming month.

C-Pace- No one was able to attend will have to reschedule a special meeting.

Next step living-

-Open Door selected as charity organization,* is in vetting process

-Candace's HES visit scheduled for 12/3 at 8:00am, confirmed with Candace today. Media follow up:

Press:

Register Citizen-Ryan Flynn

Winsted Journal-Shaw Issacson

Waterbury Republican-American-Kurt Moffett

TV:

Tim/Public Access

Jeff Ziner in Torrington

Channel 3?

Launch Schedule:

Nov 29 Small Business Day?

Dec 3rd HES Visit (Candace)

Dec 6th Town Event-Campaign Launch Announcement (Candace/Dale/Loretta)

Dec 9th Letter lands in town

December 13th Start of Canvass

Businesses to Get on Board:

Loretta-Health Food Store, FOM, Cinema

John-Hardware stores

Brian-YMCA, Noli Restaurant, Gas Stations?, Sports Dome, R&B Sports, Northwest Sporting Goods

Training Power Point for Energy Commission (Brian)

Item 6- New business-

Tabled

Item 7- T. Wheeler motions to adjourn, J. Wiardia seconds, motion carries unanimously. 8:33pm

--

Loretta